Honokono, DECEMBER 12TH, 1891.

THE speech of Count MATSUGATA at the Chief Justice, Sir James Russell, yesterday opening of the second session of the Japanese morning and inspected the Court buildings and Diet contains an interesting epitome of the offices. policy of the Government. Foreign relations are placed first in order of the subjects mentioned, and satisfaction is expressed that in- 18th inst. tercourse with the Treaty Powers is becoming more intimate year by year. The want of success which has hitherto attended the the Mercury, placed the Wuchang as a spare boat efforts to secure Treaty Revision is referred to, but Count MATSUGATA declares that he will, "in spite of divers troubles and "difficulties which will come in the way, try ing reinstated in his position in the C.M.S.N. Co "hard to attain that object for the right and "interest of the nation." No hint is given, however, of the lines on which it is intended was sunk in the gale of a week ago. These the negotiations shall be reopened, but it is safe to predict that the Japanese demands will not be less than they were in the last negotiations, while on the other hand the Bethel flag, will call alongside any vessel the opposition on the part of the foreign holsting code pennant C.; to convey men ashore mains as strong as ever. Nor is the opposition altogether without justification. which to change the social and legal systems with the new Hoppo of Canton, Mr. Lun Tsit. of a nation, and some misgiving may well be entertained as to the permanency and extent of the change. Mr Frederick Smith is in a flouble sense the ouncest imember of the House of Commons. being junior both in regard to age and date of election. He is only twenty three years of age. The next youngest member (remarks the Chronicle) is Lord Walter Gordon Lennox (Chichester). who is twonty-six. Then come Mr. Cornwallis (Maidstone), twenty-seven, and Mr. George Wyndham (Mr. Balfour's private secretary), twenty-eight. Other members under thirty years of age are Lord Carmarthen (Brixton), Mr. W. Bromley-Davenport (Mnoclesfield), Sir Edward Grey (Berwick-on Tweed), Sir I, Esmonde (South Dublin), "Mr. Lawson" (West St., Pancras), Viscount Weymouth (Frome), and Mr. Francis Stevenson (Eve).

THE DOCTORS SHOOK THEIR HEADS

"I would give a million dollars for a stomach." said a wealthy American recently. Now, a mil-Hon dollars (£200,000) is a deal of money, but he was not able to buy the article even at that

Mr. Thomas Gaskin, of No. 3, Poplar Row, Darley Abbey, near Derby, is not so rich as many, being a gardener, but he was ready enough to give all, he had for one thing he hadn't got. Here is his story, and he shall tell it in his own way. Mr. Gaskin goes on to say "Up to eight years ago I had never lost an hour's work through sickness. In December, 1882, whilst living at Beeston, near Nottingit ham, my appetite fell away, I had dreadful pain after eating a bad taste in my month, which would fill with water and slime, the latter so thick and sticky that: I often had to remove it with my fingers. My chest used to 'fill up 'and my throat would swell so I couldn't button my shirt at the neck. I vomited a great deal, chiefly a rellowish-green phlogm. I had a racking cough, and would cough and strain till I bled at the nose, and the blood rushed out of my ears to call the doctor, and was in bed five or six I then went as out-patient to the Nottingham Hospital, and after attending there for six months was very little better. I got so thin that I was like a ghost walking about, and my friends said it was all up with me. For eighteen months I kept getting better, then werse, and at last the doctors recommended me to try a change of air. So I came to Darloy Abbey and my former master gave me an indoor recommendation to the Derbyshire Infirmary, Derby. I found, however, that all the beds in the hospi tal were full, and I saw my club doctor and slee two doctors at Derby. The first one said. You are in a galloping consumption, and must die; the other doctors, after sounding my lungs and

I became exhausted and short of breath and had chest, said nothing, but shook their heads.

Getting a trifle better my old master allowed me to do what little I opplied in his gardens and grounds; and some days I worked a little, and then would be away for a few days. Things went on like this until December, 1388, when caught cold, got very short of breath, and broke down completely. I was always coughing and spitting up phiegm, sometimes as much as a teacupful at once, and mas afraid to go to sleep for fear the phleam would chake me. At the time the whites of my eyes throughlow, and my eyes were bloodshot. My line and mouth were dry and parched and I often broke out into a cold clammy sweat. My tongue was like a piece of brown leather, and I could keep nothing down. I lost over a stone weight in three

"I managed to get up for a few hours at a time, but was so weak I had to take hold of the furniture to move a few vards. I was always tired and weary, and sitting or lying, was never at ease and got no real rest. Too weak to read I often sat for bours looking at my hands-no; thing but skin and bone, and was so nervous couldn't bear the least noise, and the children at play quite upset me. The doctor kept on attending me, but he said, I can do you no good; I can only patch you up bucause your lungs are diseased. I then gave over taking his medicine and tried everything I could hear of. One thing was a cough ours from London that cost 22s. a bottle. But nothing did any good, and my friends who came to see me said. Well you won't cough much longer, you have merely to prepare for another "About the middle of March, 1889, a neighbour named Joseph Tatham, who works in the paper mills at Darley Abbey, said to me. Tom, did you ever try Mother Seigel's Syrup? and told me how he had been cured after being in the hospital. He spoke so much in praise of this medicine I sent my wife to Derby and got a bottle at Mr. Smith's Stores in Victoria Street. After the first dose I had an evacuation black as ink, and vom ted. Then I fell asleop and felt rested when I swoke. After taking the medicine for three days my breathing got easier, my food kept down, and in a few days more I was able to go out for a short walk. By the end of the fortnight I went to see my master who asked what had wrought the improvement, and I told him, as I tell every one. that Mother Seigel's Syrup had saved my life. I commenced work at once, and have never lost, g day's work since. "Of course my strength did not return all at once, but after taking, Selical's Syrup for the months I was as strong as ever in my life and have continued so ever since." In giving his consent to the publication of this remarkable statement, Mr. Gaskin requests us to refer all doubters to him or to Mr. Keetley, Head Gardener, Darley Abbey, who is acquainted with all the facts alleged. Mr. Gaskin bas lived at Darley Abbey 22 years and bears an excellent reputation. Now, what was the complaint from which he suffered F Not galloping consumption, certainly (as one of the doctors thought), or he would have gallaped into his grave in less than three months, instead of growing worse for seven years. His complaint was chronic inflammatory dyspepsia (or chronic gustrio catarrh), which has lung symptome like consumption, for which it is so often ignorantly mistaken and wrongly treated. When the right remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrap. was used the disease yielded, as all diseases of the digestive track do yield to that magnificent preparation. We heartily congratulate Mr. Gaskin on his reactiony, and commend the facts of his case to all thildking proplet
